Frequently Asked Questions Boston Marathon Bombings

Financial Assistance

1. How do I file for Crime Victim Compensation through the Office of the Attorney General?

The Victim of Violent Crime Compensation Assistance fund is available to help pay crime related expenses incurred as a result of a violent crime occurring in Massachusetts. Please note that you do not have to be a resident of Massachusetts to apply for the program nor do you need to be seeking assistance only for services in Massachusetts.

The application can be found at www.mass.gov/ago/docs/victim/vcomp-app-marathon.pdf. Once the form is completed, please mail it to 1 Ashburton Place, Boston, MA 02108, or send by fax to the Victim Compensation & Assistance Division of the Office of Attorney General Martha Coakley at (617) 742-6262. For additional information please call the Victim Compensation & Assistance Division at (617) 727-2200, ext. 2160.

2. What do I do if I do not have health insurance?

With over 25 years of expertise navigating complex health matters, the City of Boston's Mayor's Health Line at the Boston Public Health Commission is available to help any victim obtain health insurance, find a health care provider, and apply to programs that cover other health care costs.

Call the health line to:

- Determine your eligibility for health insurance programs (including MassHealth)
- Submit an application over the phone in any language for public benefit programs including food stamps/SNAP or subsidized health insurance
- Selecting a primary care provider that meets your needs and accepts your insurance.

The Mayor's Health Line is a free and confidential, information and referral phone service open Monday through Friday from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm. 617-534-5050 / Toll-Free: 1-800-847-0710. This service is available to all victims regardless of residency.

If you need assistance with paying for medical bills, please see Question 1 regarding how Victim Compensation may be able to assist with your bills.

Property

3. How can I claim property that was left at the site?

The Boston Police Department is in possession of property left behind at the scene of the Marathon Bombings. These items have been reviewed by investigators, and determined to have no evidentiary value, and therefore may be returned to owners. The FBI may be in possession of some belongings. There are two mechanisms by which individuals may inquire about their property:

- 1) Via email at lostproperty.bpd@cityofboston.gov
- 2) By calling the Boston Police Department at (617) 343-4453

4. How do I replace my Massachusetts driver's license or Massachusetts ID card?

A duplicate license or ID can be ordered on the RMV's website www.massrmv.com, by calling the RMV's Telephone Center at 857-368-8000 or by visiting a RMV Branch Office. The cost of a duplicate license or ID is $25.00. For more information, visit: <http://www.massrmv.com/rmv/license/11lost.htm>

5. How do I replace my out-of-state driver's license or out-of-state ID card?

To replace your out-of-state driver's license or out-of-state ID card, you will need to contact the Department of Motor Vehicles from your state of residence.

Mental Health Counseling

6. Where can I find a listing of free mental health counseling services in Massachusetts?

The Massachusetts Office for Victim Assistance is an independent state agency that provides funding for agencies across the Commonwealth who provide direct services to victims of crime. A listing of these services can be found at www.mass.gov/mova. This list represents the immediately identified programs that may be available to assist victims of the Boston Marathon Bombing. Victim of Crime Act (VOCA) services are provided free of charge. Eligibility for services is determined by the identified program. This list may not be all inclusive of available services and is current as of 4/23/13. We will revise the list as additional services are identified. Should you have questions about the programs or need additional information, please feel free to contact MOVA at 617-586-1340 or mova@state.ma.us.

7. I am a victim of the Boston Marathon Bombings but do not live in Massachusetts. Who can I contact for referrals to services in my home state?

The Massachusetts Office for Victim Assistance has contacts across the country that disseminates Victim of Crime Act Funding which funds free services to victims of crime. For referrals to those agencies, please contact The Massachusetts Office for Victim Assistance at (617) 586-1340 or mova@state.ma.us.

The FBI has FBI Victim Specialists all over the country that can also provide you with information and referrals in your area. To access those specialists, please call 1-800-331-0075.

8. Where can I find a listing of support groups in my area?

The Massachusetts Office for Victim Assistance will continue to update its website with support group information. Please visit www.mass.gov/mova for the most up to date information.

Law Enforcement

9. How do I get in touch with an FBI specialist?

The FBI is the lead law enforcement agency responsible for investigating the bombings at the Boston Marathon on April 15, 2013. Crimes can have a devastating effect on victims and their families who may need assistance coping with the impact. Providing information and assistance to victims of the bombings is an important part of our work.

The FBI is legally mandated to identify victims of federal crimes that it investigates and provide these victims with information, assistance services, and resources. The FBI's Office for Victim Assistance (OVA) is uniquely suited to provide emergency assistance to victims of domestic and international terrorism and mass violence crimes due to its national and international scope and extensive experience in responding to more than 13,000 victims of these crimes.

If you were injured or witnessed the Boston Marathon bombings, you may be eligible for certain services and rights, including special funding to provide emergency assistance, crime victim compensation, and counseling. Additional information about these resources can be found at website links listed below. If you have not spoken to an FBI victim specialist, please contact the FBI Office for Victim Assistance at bostonmarathon.victimassistance@ic.fbi.gov, call the FBI Victim Assistance Call Center at 1-800-331-0075 or visit www.fbi.gov/stats-services/victim_assistance/seeking-victim-information/assistance-for-victims-of-the-boston-marathon-bombings.

10. How can I get information regarding the criminal case against the defendant?

The United States Attorney's Office for the District of Massachusetts will be prosecuting the defendant. The U.S. Attorney's Victim Assistance Staff will provide information and assistance to victims throughout the prosecution process. This assistance includes information about victims' rights, the status of the case, referrals to community-based services, and court accompaniment. If victims have questions or need assistance, please contact the Victim Assistance staff via email at USAMA.victimassistance@usdoj.gov. A recorded line that provides information about the case can be reached at 888-221-6023; you will not be able to leave a message on this line. If you wish to speak to someone directly, please contact the FBI Victim Assistance Call Center at 1-800-331-0075.

The U.S. Attorney's Office will use the Department of Justice Victim Notification System (VNS), in addition to other means, to ensure victims are informed. This automated system provides victims with information by letter or email about scheduled court dates and the outcome of significant court events. In addition, victims may access case status information by calling the VNS Call Center at 1-866-365-4968 (1-866-DOJ-4YOU) or by accessing the VNS website site: www.notify.usdoj.gov. Access to VNS is limited to victims of the federal crime who have received VNS ID and PIN numbers from the U.S. Attorney's Office. It is important to have current contact information for victims, particularly emails and phone numbers, in order to provide timely notification.

11. I would like to thank a First Responder who assisted me. How can I get in touch with them?

A request to speak with a First Responder must be made by the victim and/or witnesses. Please call the Mayor's Hotline at (617) 635-4500.
